Lack of advertising... beneficial to some!

When Mark Twain was a young man, he was editor and publisher of a growing newspaper in a small Missouri town. One day he received a letter from one of his subscribers. The subscriber said that he had found a spider in that morning's edition of his paper. He wanted to know if this was an omen of good luck, or of bad luck. Mark Twain, a hustling space salesman as well as an editor, wrote to his customer:

Dear Sir:

Finding the spider in your newspaper yesterday morning was neither good luck or bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which of the town's merchants is not advertising. He will then go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward.

Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company 1295 State Street, Springfield

SERVING SPRINGFIELD AND THE NATION FOR OVER 120 YEARS

Today a person's success is measured by his civic concern as well as by his business accomplishments – by his concern for people and environment, concern for the future as well as the present.

As a company we are proud that our reputation derives from the composite success of our agents. These men and women are improving the quality of life in their respective communities. They are success-prone in their involvement with people whether it is making their neighborhood a more desirable place to live or in perfecting their professional skills in applying life insurance to solve the financial problems of both families and businesses.

Mass Mutual derives its reputation for integrity and service from agents like those in the . . .
